

RALPH DE PALMA: GENTLEMAN CHAMPION

BY GARY D. DOYLE

This entertaining biography also serves as a history text on pre-WWII U.S. racing. Lavishly produced and illustrated with fantastic artwork and period photos, Champion is written chronologically, but it's much more than a dry timeline. $80 (www.king-of-the-boards.com)

WALT HANSGEN: HIS LIFE AND THE
HISTORY OF POST-
WAR AMERICAN
ROAD RACING

BY MICHAEL ARGETSINGER

Like Gentleman Champion, this book uses one driver as a prism for an era. It's easy to read and full of facts, but it fails to convey the passion that permeated road racing in the 1950s and '60s. $50 (www.bullpublishing.com)
